Metal Church

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Many, many years ago on a distant shore
Men did gather secretly beyond a hidden door
They traveled long and traveled far, darkness through the night
Yes, this is the place they've chosen to build another site
Congregation rises, starts to chant a hymn
Of evil, lust and hatred, the roots of every sin
The priest he stands before them, tells them why they are this way
Why they worship Metal Gods each and every day?
By the hand of Oberon, dark into the deep
Love the evil things we do, the secrets that we keep
Metal church, unholy, who'll you be the sacrifice?
Metal church, the only, don't you know the time is right?
Metal church will find you, can't run very far
The metal church inside you, will know just who you are
Who you are
No use in speaking out against anything we do
While the men of earth they sleep, haven't any clue
Well, now the story starts again, all the time is lost
Metal church begins to do, saving souls that are lost
Metal church, unholy, who'll you be the sacrifice?
Metal church, the only, don't you know the time is right?
Metal church will find you, can't run very far
Metal church inside you, knows just who you are
Who you are
The metal church
