

Arrows Fly

Edguy

Faking the truth in their eyes
Smile but they really deride, never give you shelter
Lady all alone, naked to the bone
Make you bleed and melt into tears
Down on your knees you will see what you could be
Raise the power in your eyes
Make us rise to make us say
Down and alone, arrows fly breaking on my soul
Down and alone, arrows fly
I remember times when arrows hit me causing pain
All alone I've found my soul and now my soul is sane
The night has come down on the land
I wanna reach out for her land
But she takes another, lonesome in my room
Staring at the moon, treated like a bother
Down on my knees I have seen what I can be
Raise the power in my eyes
Makes me rise to make me say
Down and alone, arrows fly breaking on my soul
Down and alone, arrows fly
I remember times when arrows hit me causing pain
All alone I've found my soul and now my soul is sane
Down and alone, arrows fly breaking on my soul
Down and alone, arrows fly
I remember times when arrows hit me causing pain
All alone I've found my soul and now my soul is sane
Isn't loneliness a good reason
To become acquainted with yourself?
And when you're down and out
Aren't you compelled to face yourself?
And if you know yourself
Can the arrows of the world outside hurt you anymore?
