

Survive

Sweet Coffee

He's for ever lost in an ocean
An ocean full of thoughts,
His world is falling apart.

He stands in a valley deep down below
Starring at the high mountain top
He's climbing, he's climbing

Will he ever find a way, a way up
Will he ever climb the high mountain top
He's holding on to his best memories, best memories,
to survive
to survive

He's rising above the cloud line
His view is clear right now
He's rising he's rising

He stops and turns his head around
Starring at the far horizon
He feels like flying, he feels like flying

Will he ever find a way, a way up
Will he ever climb the high mountain top
He's holding on to his best memories, best memories,
to survive
to survive
