Practice What You Preach (Alcatraz Revisit)

Testament

You think your life's so grand
You don't believe a word you say
Your feet aren't on the ground
You let your life just slip awayJust so uncertain of your body and your soul
The promises you make, your mind goes blank
And then you lose control, then you lose control!
I never was the one, the one to say the things you say
Never seem to wonder what you sayYou think, you've got your life completely in control
You've got a lot to learn, the bridge you burned
It's gonna take its toll, pay the burnt bridge tollSo practice what you preach
Practice what you preach, preach
Practice what you preach
Practice what you preach, preach
Practice what you preachYou think your life's so grand
You don't believe a word you say
Your feet aren't on the ground
You let your life just slip awayJust so uncertain of your body and your soul
The promises you make, your mind goes blank
And then you lose control! Pay the burnt bridge toll
Then you lose control, pay the burnt bridge tollSo practice what you preach
So practice what you preach, preach
Practice what you preach
Practice what you preach, preach
