

I Still Feel the Same About You

Ella Fitzgerald & The Ink Spots

i don't know how it happened
I don't know who's to blame
I don't know how I hurt you but I hurt you just the same
And even though you say we're through
I still feel the same about you. Somebody must have told you the story that you've heard that I had found another love
but don't believe a word
And though you break my heart in two I still feel the same about you. There's two sides to every story as different as night and day
There's two sides to every story
please hear what I have to say No matter what has happened
no matter who's to blame
there'll never be another
who can make me feel the same
So please believe that I've been true
I still feel the same about you. But still I don't know how it happened
I don't know who's to blame
I don't know how I hurt you but I hurt you just the same
And even though you say we're through
the story that you've heard
that I had found another love
And though you break my heart in two
I still feel the same about you.
There's two sides to every story
as different as night and day
There's two sides to every story
please hear what I have to say
No matter what has happened
who can make me feel the same
So please believe that I've been true
and please! feel the same about me
'cause I still feel the same about you.
