Sea Shells

Sia

By the window Since time began Watch the wind blow Sculpting sandAll in letters bound in string Life is slowly unravelingBurning castle Turning down Mr. Prince has Lost her crownAll in letters bound in string Time is slowly unravelingShe sells Empty sea shells Lost in the oceanThrough the window We can see Sand and biscuits Cups of teaAll in letters bound in string Life is slowly unravelingAll in letters bound in string Life is slowly unravelingShe sells Empty sea shells She sells Empty sea shells Lost in the ocean
