

If

Rivermaya

If i could choose to live my life there'll be no if's to say if i would choose to hold ur hand there'll be no words to say without thought
without pride
leave the things that see to weaken us without fear without lies
let the magic turn your life around if i would choose to touch u there would u touch me there too if u would choose to stay with me i'll spend my life with u
without thought
leave the things that seem to weaken us
leave ur lies
let the magic turn your life around
