Inevitable

Alisha's Attic

Spoke to you tonight, for the first time in weeks
I'd forgotten that bu-tterfly feeling
Cos I've been livin' in a strange world
I've been growin' a big, strong girl
I've been livin' in a whirl-wind
Will you know me when I come back?
Days, they go by,
Is our love still breathin' as
Years, they just fly
(it's only getting wilder)
Days, they go by,
Is our love still breathin' as
Years, they just fly
(it's only getting wilder)Well, I used to be shy,
I used to be satisfied
(had a good routine, didn't wanna put the spoilers on it)
Cos I've been livin' in a strange world
And you're not growing alongside me
You're not livin' in my whirl-wind,
So will I know you when I come back?Days, they go by,
Is our love still breathin' as
Years, they just fly
(it's only getting wilder)
Days, they go by,
Is our love still breathin' as
(givin' it all I got)
Years, they just fly
(it's only getting wilder)Days, they go by,
Is our love still breathin' as
(givin' it all I got)
Years, they just fly
(it's only getting wilder)Days, they go by,
Is our love still breathin' as
Years, they just fly
(it's only getting wilder)Cos I've been livin' in a strange world
I've been growin' a big, strong girl
I've been livin' in a whirl-wind
Will you know me when I come back?
But you're not livin' in a strange world,

You're not growin' alongside me,
You're not livin' in my whirl-wind
Will I know you when I come back?
(will I know you when I come ba-a-ack)(will I know you when I come ba-a-ack)
