

Eve of Seduction

Symphony X

It's alright no need to question
Taste the night
Just close your eyes
It just takes one bite All you need's in my possession
Just believe
Come take my hand tonight
And trust your dream I'm falling all to pieces
Slowly losing control Can it be true
Why can't you see I'm burning for you
There's no disguise in my desires
What can I do? All you will know
Give me your heart
Give me your soul
I'll tear it apart
So long as you'll never let me go
Oh On your ear a whisper, fallen
Show no fear
Go spread your wings and fly
Shed no tears
Pleasure's pain, I hear it calling
Feed the flame
Within becoming kin with the son's of Cain I'm falling all to pieces
Slowly losing control Can it be true
Why can't you see I'm burning for you
There's no disguise in my desires
What can I do? All you will know
Give me your heart
Give me your soul
I'll tear it apart
So long as you'll never let me go
Oh All you will know
Give me your heart
Give me your soul
I'll tear it apart
So long as you'll never
Let me go
Oh
