

Everything to You

Jimmy Robbins

You ask me a question what's on my mind and I tell you it's nothing that I feel fine but it's really you that pours over me everyday, everyday so don't go changing your ways cause you're perfect, yes it's true
I wanna be everything to you
I'm giving you all my love as proof I wanna be everything and turn our world into something
Let me be everything,
everything to you
With a war every second
It's easy to fade
Every word is a weapon but it's safe to say It's really you that keeps me alive all the time all the time So don't go changing your smile cause it's perfect, yes it's true
I wanna be everything to you
I wanna be everything and turn our world into something
Let me be everything,
everything to you
We may walk this life and have troubles some days but don't think we won't get over it all cause we'll never fall
Everything to you
I wanna be everything and turn our world into something
Let me be everything
I wanna be everything to you
I'm giving you all my love as proof
I want to be everything and turn our world into something I want to be everything to you

I'm giving you all my love as proof
I want to be everything and turn our world into something and turn our world into something let me be everything to you, to you, to you
