The Edge

Avantasia

When I was sent to walk this long cold way
I'd never meant to take it all this far
Nobody told me I was bound to stray
You gave me visions and cut out this partWhen the journey is over
Then what will remain
But a churchyard of angelsDon't need no glory
The bottle and I
Don't need no sympathy at all
As I hang on the edgeDon't need no glory
Till the river's run dry
I won't cry for sympathy as I
Hang on the edgeWhen your were shackles chances passed me by

I've broken free Now I'm free falling

Laid down my arms as you laid down the lie:
Those words you didn't say when I was callingFingers bleed onto the ivory
They dance on the keys
To a churchyard of angelsDon't need no glory

The bottle and I
Don't need no sympathy at all
As I hang on the edgeDon't need no glory
Till the river's run dry
I won't cry for sympathy as I
Hang on the edge
