

Pearls B4 the Swine

Prince

If I leave my front door open
Would you come and visit me?
Just to slander my name hopin'
That I would pack my bags and leave If I did would you remember
To feed the dove and clean the cage?
And never count in front of the children
Lest they die of old age I don't really know why we have to go our separate ways
Whether or not we grow after the seeds are sown
Only time can say Can I offer you baklava
Or a bagel with cream cheese?
Will we say grace to our father
Holding hands down on our knees? Are we better off just fighting?
You on your side, me on mine
Are the words that eye keep writing
Only pearls B4 the swine? What makes men claim that you're a friend
When you're not at all?
They knock you down and then
They lift you up again, just to see you fall But like a bird I'll keep on singing
A song that never leaves your mind
If nothing else you've taught me one thing
Never cast your pearls B4 the swine

Songwriters

Prince, Published by

PRINCE STREET MUSIC Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>