

Heartless Deceiver

Jean B. Gerbier

Heartless Deceiver

I do want to interrupt you from wanting a role of involving in an outside relationship.

You had done so, to find out what my reaction to such a situation might be. I admit it, that I do want to explore new horizons. A reaction of you going out of my life is a little bit insane.

Chorus

Heartless deceiver, don't let your life circumstances ruined our romance.

Heartless deceiver, millions of chances to gain satisfaction.

Heartless deceiver, let's make this durable love affair last forever.

Why did you suddenly want me to be jealous of you that night? I found the whole thing extremely upsetting, when you're still saying I love you. How can you on the other hand distract the attraction of our love.

I suggest you run away from this conflict and give me more affection.
