Everything You Want

Jc Chasez

The shame is in the greed, no, no
The distance of being just out of reach
Is taking its effect on me
Why do I feel the needs of guilty tendencies
Eating away at who I used to want to be?
Caught up in the trapping zone
It's almost impossible to keep up
Camouflage, Bandaids for my insecurities
Swimming with sharks, I've become a killer
What about your heart?
I want the love of my life as of yesterday
Where does it stop?
The more you get, the more you want
Everything you want, you just can't have it
Everything you want, you just can't have it
Everything you want, you just can't have it
Everything you want, you just can't have it
There's always something else around the corner
The appetite is never fully satisfied
Even before you get you're on to the next
Consuming everything in sight
Living in a fantasy world, trying to digest the fact
That having everything can make you happy
Work so hard, fill the void of insecurity
Self absorbed, I've become the killer
Restless heart, what's left and who needs it anyway?
Haunted by thoughts of
The more you get, the more you want
Everything you want, you just can't have it
(You just can't, just can't have it all)
Everything you want, you just can't have it
(You just can't, just can't have it all)
Everything you want, you just can't have it
(Whoa)
Everything you want, you just can't have it
Whoa, no, no, no, no, no, no, no
Slow down and take a look around you
The simple pleasures will astound you
The weight of everything move around you

Release the burden that you're bound to
Don't you want it, want it?
Want the money, money
Don't you want it, want it?
Want the money, money
Don't you want it, want it?
Want the money, money
Don't you want it, want it?
Want the money, money
Don't you want it, want it
Want the money, money
Don't you want it, want it
Want the money, money
Don't you want it, want it
Want the money, money
Don't you want it, want it
Want the money, money
Everything you want, you just can't have it
(You just can't, just can't have it all)
Everything you want, you just can't have it
(You just can't, just can't have it all)
Everything you want, you just can't have it
(No, no, no, no, no, no, no, no)
Everything you want, you just can't have it
Everything you want, you just can't have it
(Oh, you just can't, just can't have it all)
Everything you want, you just can't have it
(Oh no, ooh oh)
Everything you want, you just can't have it
(No, no, no, no, no, no, no, no)
Everything you want, you just can't have it
Don't you want it, want it?
Want the money, money
Don't you want it, want it?
Want the money, money
Don't you want it, want it?
Want the money, money
Don't you want it, want it?
Want the money, money
Don't you want it, want it?
Want the money, money
Don't you want it, want it?
Want the money, money
Don't you want it, want it?
Want the money, money

Don't you want it, want it?
Want the money, money
