I Am The Man

The Czars

You are beyond any reproach now
You are so cool, youre so flawless now
Perfect approach, impeccable execution
When you are done, can you show me how?Im not just a man
I am the man you cant have
I need something else
You are the one who cant helpYouve gotten sick on self-satisfaction
And now my patience is wearing thin
You seem surprised, how could this happen?
You knew what I was when you took me inIm not just a man
I am the man you cant have
I need something else
And you are the one who cant helpAnd Im not just a man
I am the man you cant have
And I need something else
And you are the one who cant helpIm not just a man
I am the man you cant have
I need something else
And you are the one who cant help
