The Midnight Hour

Ray Lemond

The midnight hour has found me lonely
So unhappy as I can be
You left me, yes you left me without a loveGave you my lovin, everything I owned
That's why it's so shockin' to find you've gone
It's getting me, it's hard to be, without a loveHaven't had no lovin' now since you know when
The way it's got me baby, you know, it's a sin
I haven't got no money and I've lost my friend
All because I fell for youI don't know why I have to worry
When you left me in a hurry
You've gone and I'm alone without a lovePlease believe me, you know I care
I'd follow you most anywhere
But now you've gone and I'm alone, without a love
