

Erase

Disciple

Come lift up your eyes and look into mine (Isaiah 45: 22)

Try to see what I see (2 Corinthians 5: 17)

Your mind has not been a friend (Ephesians 4: 17-20)

It chokes you within and makes truth look like a demon (2 Corinthians 11: 14-15; 2 Timothy 4: 3-4)

Rewinding these memories, suffering every night

But I've been watching you

Hoping you would see the truth and run to the light (John 8: 12) When you say you're not ok

My heart it breaks to heal your pain (Psalm 147: 3)

I will erase your yesterday

(Psalm 103: 12)

You'll be ok

My love is greater than your mistake (Proverbs 10: 12; 1 Peter 4: 8)

I can't make you believe

Shame doesn't have to be your true identity (Romans 8: 1)

I still will not go away as long as it takes (Deuteronomy 31: 8)

I will keep your soul breathing (Jude 1: 24) When you say you're not ok

My heart it breaks to heal your pain

I will erase your yesterday

You'll be ok

My love is greater than this

Forget every regret (Philippians 3: 13)

I'll make perfection from this mess

(2 Corinthians 12: 9)

I will erase your yesterday

You'll be ok

My love is greater than your mistake You are not alone (Matthew 28: 20)

When you say you're not ok

My heart it breaks to heal your pain

I will erase your yesterday

You'll be ok

My love is greater than this

Forget every regret (Philippians 3: 13)

I'll make perfection from this mess

(2 Corinthians 12: 9)

I will erase your yesterday

You'll be ok

My love is greater than your mistake
