Got to Make a Comeback

Robert Cray

Loving you was Always a cost
That I never bought
Till we
Started drifting apart
Now I know the love that you give
Is something that I've got to kissGotta make comeback
To your heartI realize
The love light is lost
There's no greater cross
To bear
Than the pain
Of a broken heartNow I know that I've got to pay
Every night and dayGotta make a comeback
To your heartNow, girl
Ohh, when you say, baby
Here's where it ends
Can't we just be friends?
And I
Ohh, I have to make a new startOhh, the love and that pain
Trying to win your love back againGotta make comeback
To your heartGotta make a comeback
