Alone in my mind I know
That someone else is in control
My will was altered for the first time
Before I learned how to doubtMy will to live is almost gone
There is no need to suffer anymore
Deep down in my brain
I am becoming more afraidThere must be someone else
In charge of my inner self
My will to live is almost gone
There is no need to suffer anymoreLies inside my pitiful head
Are what I need to go on
My will to give has gone
And I am alone
In this oppressing worldDemons from the past
Shall eat me alive at last
My will to live is almost gone
There is no need to suffer anymoreLies inside my pitiful head
Are what I need to go on
My will to give has gone
And I am alone
In this oppressing worldDemons from the past
Shall eat me alive at last
Who took over my mind?
Who's controlling my head?
Who is in charge of my brain?
