Looking at the Sun

Matthew Sweet

Do you really want to run away with me?
Would you really like to run away with me?
I can feel very clearly but no longer see'Cause I'm looking at the sun waiting for you to appear
Watched you getting nearer like I knew it in my heart
'Til the damage was already done, looking at the sun
Burned my eyes out and I'm blind now, yeah I'm blind nowI was looking for somebody that you couldn't be
I was looking for somebody that you will never be
I was so sure that there was nothing wrong with meFor oh, looking at the sun waiting for you to appear
Watched you getting nearer like I knew it was in my heart
'Til the damage was already done looking at the sun
Burned my eyes out and I'm blind now, I'm blindDo you really want to run away with me?
I can feel very clearly but no longerOh, looking at the sun waiting for you to appear
Watched you getting nearer like I knew it was in my heart
'Til the damage was already done, looking at the sun
Burned my eyes out and now I'm blindWaiting for you to appear
Watched you getting nearer like I knew it was in my heart
'Til the damage was already done, looking at the sun
Burned my eyes out and I'm blind now, yeah I'm blind now
