

Black Tambourine (Remixed by South Rakkas Crew)

Beck

Black hearts in effigy
We sing a song that was hated
All dressed in rag and bones
Sharks smell the blood that I'm bleeding
I know there's something wrong
Might take a fire to kill it
Might take a hurricane
Don't know what life that I'm livin' Oh oh oh
Black tambourine
Oh oh oh
Black tambourine My baby run to me
She lives in broken down buildings
Can't pay the rent again
These spider webs are my home now
And when the sun is down
We'll shake and rattle our bodies
To keep it warm at night
My tambourine is still shaking Oh oh oh
Black tambourine
Oh oh oh
Black tambourine Black hearts in effigy
We sing a song that was hated
All dressed in rag and bones
Sharks smell the blood that I'm bleeding
I know there's something wrong
Might take a fire to kill it
Might take a hurricane
Don't know what life that I'm livin' Black tambourine
Oh oh oh
Black tambourine

Songwriters

ELLIS EUGENE BLACKNELL, BECK DAVID (BECK US2) HANSEN, JOHN KING, MICHAEL SIMPSON Published by

Lyrics © Peermusic Publishing, Sony/ATV Music Publishing LLC, Universal Music Publishing Group Song
Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnyrics.com/>