Hunting for you

Togo Project

i walk around these empty streets they say there?s nothing left for me i say there?s no one here for you down in the land, the land of the blind the one eyed king, he stole my mind and i let him everything i like?s illegal, seductive addictive immoral, corrosive, destructive but i?ve got kind words in my heart. it?s a passion your fashions, in fashion tonight i?m hunting for you
tonight i?m hunting for?
the stone is set, the dye is cast i am the wreckage of my past and i am not afraid to ask i sail away my sanity just to find some company now darling

addictive immoral, corrosive, destructive your addiction to danger makes me no stranger it's fashion, oh fashion
i?ll be good but i won?t be cheap there is no limit here for me and i?ll take everything i need i mean everything, everything you can waste away in fashion when you chase the daylight home
