

Sweet Relief

Blatant Disarray

Contextualize it and justify
As the passive servility eats you alive
Like a Japanese girl with a taste for absurdity
Roped up and screaming for moreIn spinless decisions you cling to a lie
A futile attempt to uphold your claim
As a new generation of nihilist rage
Get a grip on how to get shit doneWe'll get you in the end, sweet relief
I survive through the blaze of another day
Lower down and hide
Let me wake in a dream here you come undone
Sweet reliefBarter, compile it, package the scam
Analyze the effects and the overall consequence
Duping the masses, so fucking what
You get what you give I can see it nowBring in the puppets, turn on the light
Round up the gullible sheep
Deliver the drama, fake and obscene
The drug of a nation asleepWe'll get you in the end, sweet relief
Die please step this, I'm begging you
Cease to breathe
You are killing everything I loveWe'll get you in the end sweet relief
As the cane draws a line in the sand of time
Blood covers bone
In the eye of the dying I can read your thoughts
Guilt as chargedGuinea pigs all, selfless and blind
An effortless crime
No wonder it's all going down
