

Rabbit & the Bear

Josh Garrels

Run, run, so fast over fields and grass
At last, at last, we escaped from the trap
With the rabbit and the bear and the sparrows of the air
Come one, come all, under His arm

This is our chance to crawl under the wire
Through the darkest wood on down to the mountain pass
Where everything is free in the light of the sun
Where every creature sings, â€œOh Lord, rescue us all!â€™™

Donâ€™™t listen to the snake for he lies and he takes
Your hope, your faith away from you
When the Lion come around with His claw and His crown
Follow, follow His every move

And this is our chance to crawl under the wire
Through the darkest wood on down to the mountain pass
Where everything is free in the light of the sun
Where every creature sings, â€œOh Lord, you rescued us all!â€™™

Where everything is free in the light of the sun
Where every creature sings, â€œPraise God, you rescued us all!â€™™
