El Diablo Amor

Joshua Kadison

Once upon a time
In a dusted border town
There lived a girl who played guitar
They came from all aroundShe sang of all their laughter
She sang of all their pains
She knew their lives
And wove them into sweet guitar refrainsThere were the songs she sang for lovers
There were the songs she sang for the souls departed
There were the songs she sang for dreamers
This is the song she sang for the broken heartedEl Diablo Amor, El Diablo Amor
That ol' devil they call love
Broke another heart again
(Yes, El Diablo)El Diablo Amor, El Diablo Amor
Oh that ol' devil they call love
Broke another heart againThe way she played the music
The way she sang the tune
In service to the sacred soul
She was a mistress of the moonThere were the songs she sang for lovers
There were the songs she sang for the souls departed
There were the songs she sang for dreamers
This is the song she sang for the broken heartedEl Diablo Amor, El Diablo Amor
That ol' devil they call love
Broke another heart again
(Yes, El Diablo)El Diablo Amor, El Diablo Amor
That ol' devil they call love
Broke another heart againEl Diablo Amor
(El Diablo)
El Diablo Amor
That ol' devil they call love
Broke another heart again
(Yes, El Diablo)El Diablo Amor
(El Diablo)
El Diablo Amor
That ol' devil they call love
Broke another heart againEl Diablo Amor, El Diablo Amor
That ol' devil they call love
Broke another heart again
(Yes, El Diablo)El Diablo Amor, El Diablo Amor
That ol' devil they call love

Broke another heart again
