

Unraveling

Julianne Hough

Broken, White lines alone on the freeway
Sun falling down into your eyes
I feel your hand reach for my hand
Poetry fading in motion
Looks like Im fading in twilight
Under, over, I am falling
And suddenly, youre in two places Ive never been
Something transparent like seeing through who I am
Maybe Im crazy, but Im bout to let you in
I am, I am unraveling
Words are unnecessary spoken,
I am an open book, waiting for you to uncover me
Tangled, wounded, perfect
And suddenly, youre in two places Ive never been
Something transparent like seeing through who I am
Maybe Im crazy, but Im bout to let you in
I am, I am unraveling
Take me down, take me in, take me anywhere you want to go, Im not leaving
Tell the world, crumble down, like starlight around us
Under, over, I am falling
And suddenly, youre in two places Ive never been
Something transparent, like seeing through who I am
Maybe Im crazy, but Im bout to let you in
Yeah, I am unraveling
Yeeah, I am unraveling
Ohhhhhh, I am, I am unraveling
