

Don't Say Nothing's Changed

Kim Wilde

Don't say nothing's changed with you
I can hear it in your sighs
The way that you can't look me in the eyes
It's spelling out bad news So don't say, it's the same here we two
No, I can't say I'm surprised 'cos I could see it in your eyes
And, no, you don't have to lie
Baby, you don't have to lie Why can't it be like yesterday
The feelings gone but I just want to say
That I love you now and I'm holding on for you
Is that a silly thing to do? So don't say nothing's changed with you
Now we're runnin' out of time
And I've got to give up something that was mine
Oh, baby, doesn't it seem cruel So don't say, it's the same we two
'Cos we're already worlds apart and now the loneliness will start
Oh, boy, you're breaking my heart
Baby, you're breaking my heart Why can't it be like yesterday
The feelings gone but I just want to say
That I love you now and I'm holding on for you
Is that a silly thing to do? Why can't it be like yesterday
The feelings gone but just want to say
I love you now and I'm holding on for you
Is that a silly thing to do? So don't say nothing's changed with you
