

Praise You

Out of Eden

Lord, I really don't know how to write a song?
I'm not always eloquent, sometimes I get it wrong
But the thing Your doing in me, I can't describe

What a fool I'd be if I chose to hide this transformation, new motivation
Thought that we were close, I've known
You all this time

But I was just living my life my way, just getting by Thought that if I do a good deed or two, that was enough to please You
I kept the parts, I wanted to and missed out on the real You
Now, with every step and every breath I give it all, hold nothing back

With all I am, this is my choice, to live to worship You
So with all my heart, my soul, my mind, I'll love You, leave it all behind
To live my life in awe of You, is the least that I can do
I've held on so long to all my hopes and dreams
While You were asking me to place them all at Your feet
Let my praise be more than a song, I'll sing for You
Let me change all my ways in response to You

I've lived for myself, Lord, I need Your help, not I who lives but You
Now with every step and every breath I give it all, hold nothing back
With all I am, this is my choice, to live to worship You
So with all my heart, my soul, my mind, I'll love You, leave it all behind
To live my life in awe of You, is the least that I can do
For You are worthy of all honor
And You deserve the sacrifice I'll give You've touched my heart and now I see, what it is You want from me

So I'll lose the things that hold me back, so You can set me free, yeah
Now with every step and every breath I give it all, hold nothing back
With all I am, this is my choice, to live to worship You
So with all my heart, my soul, my mind, I'll love You, leave it all behind
To live my life in awe of You, is the least that I can do
Just to live my life in awe of You, is the least that I can do
