

Breakaway

ZZ Top

It's a chemical attraction I just can't slide by Every time I look into my baby's eyes
I'm helpless, so helpless, so I surrender There's a visual attraction and she's branded my soul
Simply can't deny it, she has control
I'm helpless, so helpless, so I remember She won't let me breakaway
She won't let me breakaway
I said break away, yeah, oh yeah We were working it though, baby we had a groove
Movin' to a moment when we make our move
But it happened, something happened
And I'm not lying 'bout the pain She won't let me breakaway
She won't let me breakaway
I said breakaway, yeah, oh yeah I want the answer, I want my stuff
I'm dealing with a feeling deeper than love
But I'm helpless, so helpless, but I remember She keeps saying breakaway
Somethings saying breakaway
Telling me to breakaway
Keeps on saying breakaway
