

Work

Work

Work

My father told me slow down boy, my mother said he's right, She gonna use you like a bedroom toy, it's so wrong but feels so right.
You got me working overtime, think I'm staying up all night.
Keep the rhythm till we feel the sun, Oh our hearts will be beating to the sound of the drum!
But when I look into your eyes I see,
the bright lights that hypnotize me,
no need for locks and chains, I'm free!
Nobody can run from their destiny!

I'm gonna work for my honey,
work for her time,
so we can be a little bit closer tonight,
I'm gonna work for her kisses,
work for her smile,
I'll even run for a thousand miles!
I'm gonna work for my honey,
work for her time,
so we can be a little bit closer tonight,
I'm gonna work for her kisses,
work for her smile,
I'll even run for a thousand miles!

Work

Work

Isn't it amazing how, how we think we run it all!
When in fact we know exactly who pulls the strings behind the wall.
But when I look into your eyes I see,
the bright lights that hypnotize me,
no need for locks and chains, I'm free!

Nobody can run from their destiny!

I'm gonna work for my honey,
work for her time,
so we can be a little bit closer tonight,
I'm gonna work for her kisses,
work for her smile,
I'll even run for a thousand miles!
I'm gonna work for my honey,
work for her time,
so we can be a little bit closer tonight,
I'm gonna work for her kisses,
work for her smile,
I'll even run for a thousand miles!

Let me take the night shift,
I'll be working overtime!
Locking up all the doors,
just me and you tonight!

I'm gonna work for my honey,
work for her time,
so we can be a little bit closer tonight,
I'm gonna work for her kisses,
work for her smile,
I'll even run for a thousand miles!

Work

I wanna bleed for you!
Everyday there's work to do!
We got no time to lose!
So start believing, believe we gotta work!
