

Hosea

Jillian Edwards

There's an open road ahead of me,
And an empty seat beside me.
Waiting on the sunshine to make me happy
Or the rain to let me break down and
Cry out to You, and I wonder

(Chorus) Why do I ever leave You and turn the other way?
You call me out from the desert
Come home it's not too late,
It's not too late.

Wondering why I'd ever leave You.
Chasing other lovers that don't compare to You.
By the time I say I'm sorry so
You've forgotten my mistakes,
And I wonder

(Chorus) Why do I ever leave You and turn the other way?
You call me out from the desert
Come home it's not too late,
It's not too

Late late lately I've been wondering
Where I go when I'm gone, yeah.
Late lately I've been listening
To Your voice within.

Take me out to the desert,
Speak to me tenderly.
Take me out to the desert,
Speak to me tenderly.

Why do I ever leave you?
You call me out from the desert,
Come home.
It's not to late, yea.
It's not to late.
