Broken Pieces

Lil Mama

You fill meIn the mirror, I'm lookin' at the shadow
If I bash her, I'll probably would just shatter
Broken pieces that represent my heart
Broken pieces keep fallin' from my heartIn the mirror, I'm lookin' at the shadow
If I bash her, I'll probably would just shatter
Broken pieces that represent my mind
Broken pieces keep fallin' from my heart'Cause I know what I'm feeling
And I know what is real
Broken pieces that represent my heart
Broken pieces keep fallin' from my heartEveryday when I wake up
I wanna see your face and I
Realize that you'll never apologize
For your lies and all the ways you hurt me
And I know in my mind that you ain't worthyBut when I look in the mirror
I see this girl who keeps cryin', she's cryin'
She's still in love with you
But I tell her not to 'cause she's wildin', she's wildin'I don't know what she's thinkin' about
Get it together or I'm gettin' you out of the mirror
I'm gettin' you outta my system
My vision premonition
And I listen to my answers
And free my soul from prisonIn the mirror, I'm lookin' at the shadow
If I bash her, I'll probably would just shatter
Broken pieces that represent my heart
Broken pieces keep fallin' from my heartIn the mirror, I'm lookin' at the shadow
If I bash her, I'll probably would just shatter
Broken pieces that represent my mind
Broken pieces keep fallin' from my heart'Cause I know what I'm feeling
And I know what is real
Broken pieces that represent my heart
Broken pieces keep fallin' from my heartMy patience a plastic bag
And he kept fillin' it
Carryin' baggage of others
Is where I emptied itPlayed the fool before
I'm not about to let you enter
My mind for my heart draws
The bigger pictureHis presence embrace me
His lovin' so greatly
I miss the way we

Use to sit up all night
And talk about nothin'
On the phonePlease, how could you be so weak
When you know you deserve so much better?
And rather than settle for less
Just let the best play catch upWhen the time is right, they'll find you
If you choose to do not do
The best I could do is warn and inform you
The mirrorIn the mirror, I'm lookin' at the shadow
If I bash her, I'll probably would just shatter
Broken pieces that represent my heart
Broken pieces keep fallin' from my heartIn the mirror, I'm lookin' at the shadow
If I bash her, I'll probably would just shatter
Broken pieces that represent my mind
Broken pieces keep fallin' from my heart'Cause I know what I'm feeling
And I know what is real
Broken pieces that represent my heart
Broken pieces keep fallin' from my heart
