Have You Someone (In Heaven Waiting)

The Stanley Brothers

Have you someone in Heaven awaiting?
Expecting you on that beautiful shore
Be ready to join that great band of angels
When they welcome you into that Heavenly door
(When they welcome you into that Heavenly door)Come sinners take heed while Jesus is waiting
Please never be caught in the pathway of sin
For Jesus may call you home in the mornin'
When Heaven's gates open will you enter in?Have you someone in Heaven awaiting?
Expecting you on that beautiful shore
Be ready to join that great band of angels
When they welcome you into that Heavenly door
(When they welcome you into that Heavenly door)The savior will hear the prayer of the sinner
No matter how dark, no matter how late
He'll welcome you home to the Heavenly mansion
Take a straight narrow way to that beautiful gateHave you someone in Heaven awaiting?
Expecting you on that beautiful shore
Be ready to join that great band of angels
When they welcome you into that Heavenly door
(When they welcome you into that Heavenly door)
