

Flame

Sebadoh

I don't wanna be the one who rides flame
I don't know her name
And I don't wanna go where the seekers all go
I don't wanna know
You can feel anything you wanna feel
You can feel anything you wanna feel and call it real
But I don't wanna be the one who rides flame
I don't wanna be the one who rides flame
I can't complain, though I'm wrapped up in chains
I can't complain
Everybody's got the right to be free
But that's not me
And you can feel anything you wanna feel
You can feel anything you wanna feel
You can feel anything you wanna feel
And call it real
But I don't wanna be the one who rides flame
I don't wanna be the one who rides flame
Hit the flame, burn a hole in my brain
Never be the same
I try to take it slow, but she's pushing me to go
Where I don't wanna go
And you can feel everything you wanna feel
You can feel everything you wanna feel
You can feel everything you wanna feel
And call it real
But I don't wanna be the one who rides flame
I don't wanna be the one who rides flame
