

The Thanks I Get

Erik Hassle

If the lies don't touch you, the truth will
If I can't love you, then who will?
When your friends are jumping ship
When your crown begins to slipAnd loyalty's not a virtue
Who are you gonna turn to?
When you've seemed to have lost your grip
And the road begins to ripI held your hand
Is this the thanks I get?
I took you in
Is this the thanks I get?Half a chance, the thanks I get
A twist of plans
Is this the thanks I get?If the lies don't touch you, the truth will
If I can't love you, then who will?
When you're coming off your chip
When your ego takes a dipI held your hand
Is this the thanks I get?
I took you in
Is this the thanks I get?Half a chance, the thanks I get
A twist of plans
Is this the thanks I get?The days hurt
The night lurk
The light burnsMy eyes hurt
The dark eyes
My heart cries
It all hurtsI loved you
I loved you
I begged youI hate you
I hate you
I miss you
I miss youThe thanks I get
Is this the thanks I get?
