

Loving You

Musiq Soulchild

(Chorus)
Loving you
Makes my heart sing a song
And knowing you
Makes all the pain go away(Verse)
I'm so sick off your beautiful (beautiful)
Aint no cure or no remedy (uh)
And if loving you is wrong (go and)
Charge me
Take the wrap for the felony (for the felony uh)
And in due time I'm just sayin (I'm just saying)
I see its when they making baby melodies (baby melodies yea)
I never thought it would be in you and me (you and me)
And then I messed around and/ fell on a knee (fell on a knee)(Chorus)
Loving you
Makes my heart sing a song
And knowing you
Makes all the pain go away(Verse)Honestly to tell the truth (uh)
It was it was cool (yeah)
I was out there doing me (uh)
And you was out there doing you
(so let's admit it)
We wasn't looking for the one
(No commitments)
We were just trying to get some (yeah)
And look at how far we've come
(uhh)
Who would have thought this would be more than a crush
(This would be more than a crush)Back then we was young and wild
Wasn't nothing you could tell us
And we wasn't slowing down
Wasn't thinking bout tommarh
We was living for the now
We aint have time to try and find nobody new to settle but
Look at us noooooooooow
We was like apples and oranges (ah huuh)
Talking about a love so foreign (ah huh)
Yeah, and we both fly

and we know it
So I put my name on that thang
keep it going cause....(Chorus)

Loving you
Makes my heart sing a song
And knowing you
Makes all the pain go away
Loving you
Makes my heart sing a song
And knowing you
Makes all the pain go away
