Knife Called Lust

Hollywood Undead

Lets go right now!I look alive, I'm dead inside.
My heart has holes
And black blood flows.We'll do some drugs,
Well fall in love and
Get fucked up while
The world just shrugs.With no thought logically.
Were wandering
The streets so aimlessly.I hate to see these kids
Just being put down so painlessly.And people say you dye your hair
And wear tight jeans.
That doesnt mean,
That you cant scream,
Or like loud noise.
You got a choice,
You have a voice.And just because you showed
No love and hate on us,
You fucked our trust.
Now watch me thrust this
Knife called lust,
Into my chest until it busts.This love, this hate
Is burning me away.
It's hard to face that
We're all the same.This love, this hate
Is burning me away.
It's harder times like these
That never changeMad at the fact your dad is an addict,
Your friend takes pills
He thinks it cures sadness,
I'm not here to attack
Or make you kids panic,
But it's just tragic
The way you kids have it.And everybody sins
And it all begins,
It goes back around,
Nobody ever wins.
And you stab yourself in the back,
Everybody just relax!It all just hits so close to home,
We all got friends but we stand alone,
And your on your own

From a broken home,
You keep the truth inside
And it stays unknown.Nostalgia hit and its time to quit,
And everybody acts
Like it don't mean shit.
And your friend will stab you
Just to fuck some girl,
Put your hands in the air and scream
Fuck the world!This love, this hate
Is burning me away.
It's hard to face that
We're all the same.This love, this hate
Is burning me away.
It's harder times like these
That never changeLet go!
I'll bring you closer
Right now!
I'll hold on tightly
Let go!
We're going no where.
Somewhere!
And things aren't over.
Harder times like these!
Growing up on the streets!
Harder times like these!
I'll put you back on your feet!This love, this hate
Is burning me away.
It's hard to face that
We're all the same.This love, this hate
Is burning me away.
It's harder times like these
That never changeAnd I fall to the ground with my teardrops
And I get lost every time my heart stopsThis love this hate is burning me awayAnd I fall to the ground with my teardrops
And I get lost every time my heart stopsThis love this hate is burning me away
