The Last Enemy

Arch Enemy

Fearless on my final quest
Find truth beyond the flesh
Fleeting past my dreams of unfulfilled desire
My strength unwavering
My journey just beginning
A desperate race through the corridors of hellChaos emerges - Surrender I will notThe last enemy is falling
Here I am - To conquer death itself
The last enemy is falling
Here I stand - To conquer death itselfFuneral silence beneath the burning cross
My immortal soul sleeps with the wolves tonight
Skin and bones that rot my blood runs dry
See me die to rise with the gods againDefy...Decay
Arise againChaos emerges
Surrender I will not
