

Who I Am

Bratz

Tell you about a City Girl
She's surprising
You never get the better
So totally amazing Don't worry about nothing
She just gotta be free, yeah
So don't you, won't you
Try to mess with me They can't tame us
So they blame us
For everything I say hey
People don't know who I am
All they can say
She's a bad girl But they just don't understand
No they don't know who I am Burst my bubble
Just try, why don't you
It doesn't matter anyway
I'm putting on a great show Moving on up
And it feels so right
Speeding in the fast lane
That is my vibe They can't tame us
So they blame us
For everything I say hey
People don't know who I am
All they can say
She's a bad girl
But they just don't understand
No they don't know who I am I hear 'em knocking at my door
I turn the stereo up some more
What can you do
When they blame it all on you? I say hey
People don't know who I am
All they can say
She's a bad girl
But they just don't understand
No they don't know who I am
