

Kiss Of Fire

Symphony X

Realms of desolation - where phantom frighten beasts
Through fiery rain, the screams of pain, eternal, never cease
Hell's abomination - boundless chains of woe
With mighty stride, the horsemen ride in a sable blackened glow
Into night - into fury
Horse of crimson she rides
Blinding light - Kiss of fire
From the depths, arise
Wasteland of confusion - where nothing's as it seems
Beneath the skies, the daylight dies
Destroyer of all dreams
Bringer of misfortune - monarch's great abyss
And by his side - the queen of lies - unleashes fury's kiss
Into night - into fury
Horse of crimson she rides
Blinding light - Kiss of fire
From the depths, arise
Feels like the sky is falling
My demons calling my name
From the other side
I'm being buried - feels like I'm buried, buried alive!
Bring down the hammer with furious anger
It's me against the world
Bring down my fists with flaming malice
It's me against the world
Into night - into fury
Horse of crimson she rides
Blinding light - Kiss of fire
From the depths, arise
