On My Own

Reina

Oh hey
Lately I find myself putting on the same clothes everyday
Trying to recapture the way it went
And I find myself crying in my bed, lying like Im dead
Im crazy in my head and all I knowThat the days run out and my heart is back
And my soul is lost in a maze of hateI dont wanna feel this hurt, I dont wanna feel this pain
I dont wanna be in silence but you took my words away
I dont wanna be insane, I dont wanna be alone
But I know, I will be on my own, my own, oh, on my ownLately I find myself sleeping alone with my phone
Hoping to hear your voice say that Im coming home
And I find myself rearranging my thoughts
Reversing this heart, returning from being lostAnd I know that the days run out and my heart is back
And my soul is lost in a maze of hateI dont wanna feel this hurt, I dont wanna feel this pain
I dont wanna be in silence but you took my words away
I dont wanna be insane, I dont wanna be alone
But I know, I will be on my own, my own, oh, on my ownHow am I gonna freeze tomorrow
When it doesn't seem fair?
And you left me with the scar of such sorrow
You dont even careWell I dont wanna feel this hurt
And I dont wanna feel this painI dont wanna feel this hurt, I dont wanna feel this pain
I dont wanna be in silence but you took my words away
I dont wanna be insane, I dont wanna be alone
But I know, I will be on my own, my own, oh, on my ownI dont wanna feel this hurt, I dont wanna feel this pain
I dont wanna be in silence but you took my words away
I dont wanna be insane, I dont wanna be alone
But I know, I will be on my own, my own, oh, on my own
