

On My Own

Reina

Oh hey

Lately I find myself putting on the same clothes everyday

Trying to recapture the way it went

And I find myself crying in my bed, lying like Im dead

Im crazy in my head and all I knowThat the days run out and my heart is back

And my soul is lost in a maze of hateI dont wanna feel this hurt, I dont wanna feel this pain

I dont wanna be in silence but you took my words away

I dont wanna be insane, I dont wanna be alone

But I know, I will be on my own, my own, oh, on my ownLately I find myself sleeping alone with my phone

Hoping to hear your voice say that Im coming home

And I find myself rearranging my thoughts

Reversing this heart, returning from being lostAnd I know that the days run out and my heart is back

And my soul is lost in a maze of hateI dont wanna feel this hurt, I dont wanna feel this pain

I dont wanna be in silence but you took my words away

I dont wanna be insane, I dont wanna be alone

But I know, I will be on my own, my own, oh, on my ownHow am I gonna freeze tomorrow

When it doesn't seem fair?

And you left me with the scar of such sorrow

You dont even careWell I dont wanna feel this hurt

And I dont wanna feel this painI dont wanna feel this hurt, I dont wanna feel this pain

I dont wanna be in silence but you took my words away

I dont wanna be insane, I dont wanna be alone

But I know, I will be on my own, my own, oh, on my ownI dont wanna feel this hurt, I dont wanna feel this pain

I dont wanna be in silence but you took my words away

I dont wanna be insane, I dont wanna be alone

But I know, I will be on my own, my own, oh, on my own
