Bliss

Aiden

I saw the truth, Mom's a whore
I saw the mark as she passed though the door
I saw the truth, you're a whore
Distill the scene and don't lie to me no moreSo what's killing you, is it the demon inside?
My God, you're turning blue, a suffocating lie
You're all I've got, you're all I've gotAnd to wake up, she fucks the pain
And wears makeup to hide the shame
Her sedative lies low
And self esteem won't grow tonight, she'll miss
And all she knows and all she knows
All she knows is blissSo what's killing you, is it the demon inside?
My God, you're turning blue, a suffocating lie
You're all I've got, you're all I've got, you're all I've gotThe black eyes filled with the love
She wrote, 'I'm not insane, I'm sorry, I have to go'
And these walls are painted red
She put a bullet in her headGoodbye, goodbye, goodbye, goodbye
That's all she saidSo what's killing you, is it the demon inside?
My God, you're turning blue, a suffocating lie
You're all I've got, you're all I've got
You're all I've got, you're all I've got
You're all I've got, you're all I've got, got
