

Burn In Me

Jenny Phillips

There is no time it seems
Your rushing to meet everybodies needs
There is no time to breath
How quickly I could fill my life
With less important things

I'm hungry and I'm empty
Till your words reach deep inside
I humble drink from waters peak
That fills me with pride
Your teachings have the power that I seek
And the spirit of the things I read
Burns in me

Sometimes we think we're strong
Pushing on through days that seam so long
I try to carry on
But without the daily bread of life I'm barely hanging on

I'm hungry and I'm empty
Till your words reach deep in side
I humble drink from waters peak
That fills me with pride
Your teachings have the power that I seek
And the spirit of the things I read
Burns in me

I pray
I ponder
I'm thirsty
I read and know that you hear me

I pray
I ponder
I'm thirsty
I read and know that you hear me

I pray
I ponder
I'm thirsty

I read and know that you hear me

I'm hungry and I'm empty
Till your words reach deep inside
I humble drink from waters peak
That fills me with pride
Your teachings have the power that I seek
And the spirit of the things I read
Burns in me
