

Brotherhood Of Destruction

Sanctity

Screaming with confidence
Lips built to bleed
The war it starts with them
With haunted eyes they feed Pain on your face, pushing your way through
Picking up the fallen, knowing that it's you
Tortured eyes in a dreamless mind, I look away
A different kind of blood flows through our veins forever Can't help but feel the power
Of something deep inside
Bloody and beaten down
There is no need to hide Tortured eyes in a dreamless mind, I look away
A different kind of blood flows through our veins forever Show me your pain, show me your fear
Gather your strength and keep it near Pain on your face, pushing your way through
Picking up the fallen, knowing that it's you
Tortured eyes in a dreamless mind, I look away
A different kind of blood flows through our veins forever Show me your pain, show me your fear
Gather your strength, keep it near:
