

Tryin' to Matter

Harry Connick, Jr.

Lucy told me if I came I'd find you here, in this hotel
but everytime i see you, I don't think so clear oh no, oh no
I seen so many people get run down from love it looks like hell so here I go, another fool trying to step out of, the shadows
tryin to matter
tryin to matter
tryin to mean something to someone tryin to give myself away I wish I had her
oh if i had her
someone might matter to me tell me if i am being rude i often am
just say it, please do look what I have done I have gone and spilled your wine all over you
yeah
I need somebody somebody that who'd hate me If I am late coming home once in a while
tryin to matter
tryin to mean something to someone
trying to give myself away oh I wish i had her
cuz if i had her
If i aint got no one
than i aint got nothin i dont want to take nothin, when i'm gone
tryin to matter
tryin to mean something to someone

i wish i had her
cuz if i had her
yeah
than someone might mean something to me
yeah
tryin to matter
oh tryin to mean something to someone
someone would matter to me
yeah
tryin to give my self to someone
if i had her
woah
hey
whoa ho ho
yeah
