

Every Little Thing

J Boog

CHORUS (x2)

Well it's like every little thing, anything ya say Every little sway, I just stop and pause and yell out...

Whoa oh wah oh I

Whoa oh wah oh IVERSE 1

Thought I was never ever gonna give up my love again girl
But then her characteristic showed me a whole new world

Because I never knew a girl that I, can savor and then lick a little come back again to taste some other flavors
Pick it on up lets roll, got that spice to fill your bowl, need someone to fill my home, love is hot never on cold

That girl, there shouldn't be no dull moment, identify them every touch giving them full focus Love back is what I'm called Daddy giving you what you want, got me special girl is your love that that I want to flaunt

Now is that chasing(?) you my baby baby boo, there are no words up in a book that can compare to
youCHORUS (x2)VERSE 2

I've been all across the world looking for you, searching for you, well all them other guys trying to get close to you

Let me paint that picture girl, let destiny untwirl, its me and you I want you in my world
The way you dress up your style and that glow in your smile, do that to me one more time, I never get enough no way keep it coming coming my baby only you can drive me crazyCHORUS (x2)RAP

Well everything you do to me baby is magic When we had it like an ak47 automatic we got static its erotic like listening to Luther V singing do you wanna be, say you wanna be, do you wanna be, say you wanna be, do you wanna be, Well, well Well, well

Bedroom must you come, put your foot on me shoulder, eh Loving me is so dangerous when I fret with those, when I fuss, baby watch me go crazy us up and down, wellCHORUS (x2)
