

Immorally Reborn

Dehumanized

There is onlt
So much a man can take
Before the spirit breaks
Battles of conscience rage
Thriving to liberate
Constant obedience has brought the animal out of me

I was forced to use restraint
Now I must rape all I see
No purpose for holding back

Ecstasy from morbid dreams
Walk the streets
It's plain to see
Fellow man is the enemy
How far can a fist protrude
When it's shoved into a throat?

I was forced to use restraint
Now I must rape all I see
No purpose for holding back

I need to lash out to help me breathe
Must take what's desired, no penalties
Lust and pure envy
Once stable traits
Acted on now 'till I'm buried
Opening suppressed visions once forbidden
Acting on urges that had been contained
Every dark secre
Now ripe for the choosing
Feeling of freedom
Relieving the pain
Sadistic human nature
The inner peace
An inner beast
That has erased all sympathies
