

Here's A Little Something For Ya

Beastie Boys

Yes yes yes I'll out the gate I set it off
I suppose you're exposed so get lost
And break north cut all connections
Join the sucker MC witness protections

Mm Mike D

Step off the launch in the place to be
Always on time so I never botch
The tick to the tock of the Mike D watch
Here's a something for ya
I'm a drive a little and stall ya
Don't lost your balance and fall ya

And if you're feeling chilly I'll fetch you a shawlGet ready get set (get set get set)

Place your bet (your bet your bet)
What you get (you get you get)
Is not done yet (done yet done yet)
Get ready get set (get set get set)
Place your bet (your bet your bet)
What you get (you get you get)

Is not done yet (done yet done yet)Here's a little something for ya

Honest Mike what?

Honest Mike D

Don't really care if the press likes me
I just speak my conscience just speak my mind
I don't trip or flip and then I start to find
Queens up front, Brooklyn's in the back

Flack from the flack guns, riot squads smokin' crack
The odds are stacked for those who lack
I been a lucky motherfucker when it comes to that

I slow roast I'm steady tappin'

Oh yeas I guess I'm the toast of the Manhattan
In Miami I'm sleazy with Jonn Salley

Shout to Andre Leon TalleyGet ready get set (get set get set)

Place your bet (your bet your bet)
What you get (you get you get)
Is not done yet (done yet done yet)
Get ready get set (get set get set)
Place your bet (your bet your bet)
What you get (you get you get)
Is not done yet (done yet done yet)

Here's a little something for yaDr. Carlton Brassiere AKA Joyce

Dr. Bombay is the ladies choice

Step on stage with the smoke from dry ice

Every time we bring it twice as nice

Now ease up bredren take an Excedrin

Only name check to rhyme is Tippi Hedron

I'm lookin' fine I'm gettin' much finer

Steady lounging in my Lazy Boy recliner

Losing it in traffic amped up on coffee

Like kids going wild after school for Mr. Softee

Like a slice around the corner uh its sneaking up on ya

Breathing down your neck it's creeping up on yaGet ready get set (get set get set)

Place your bet (your bet your bet)

What you get (you get you get)

Is not done yet (done yet done yet)

Get ready get set (get set get set)

Place your bet (your bet your bet)

What you get (you get you get)

Is not done yet (done yet done yet)

Here's a little something for ya
