Steppin' Lightly

Gov't Mule

Never seen a night so clear
Half moon hanging like a chandelier
Man, that moon got nothing on me
Let that woman knock me to my kneesHanging on by a thread
How could I be so misled?
Oh, she drive me outta my headNever saw the warning signs
Only a fool could be so blind
Who knew she could be so cold
Cut me deep into my soulI'm hanging on by a thread
How could I be so mislead?
Woman drive me outta my headOne of these days I'm gonna get better
Do whatever it takes to get myself over her
Here I come stepping lightly
So get on out of my way
Can't you feel me rising today?Hanging on by a thread
How could I be so mislead?
Oh, she drive me out of my head
Outta my headOne of these days I'm gonna get better
Do whatever it takes to get myself over her
Here I come stepping lightly
Get on out of my wayCan't you feel me rising today?
Can't you feel me rising today?
Can't you feel me rising? Oh
Can't you feel me rising today? Oh, oh
